

PhD Course: Applied Econometrics

Prof. D'Agostino

Università Roma Tre

Making regression make sense: how to use regression to estimate a causal relationship.

Direct analytic graphs DAG.

Instrumental variables in action: How to estimate a causal relationship when you have hidden information

Panel data methods: how to account for the temporal behaviour of your series and how to account for the effects of policy interventions